Higher performing people

Speaker | Executive Coach | Consultant | Trainer

"Mandy's leadership development and coaching appears effortless and natural. I admire and respect her ability to command a room and present with confidence while leaving each participant feeling as though she was talking directly to them."

- Christina St. Cyr, Owner
PURE Graphic Design

"Mandy recently spoke at a lunch and learn hosted by PROPEL, the young members network affiliated with the Portland Regional Chamber of Commerce. Mandy was incredibly receptive, and tailored a presentation to fit our audience. Speaking on the subject of multiple generations in the workplace, her presentation was interesting, informative, and of great value to the four generations of audience members. I very much look forward to working with Mandy again, and recommend her highly."
